

DICKERSON CODE OF CONDUCT

DICKERSON SCHOOL STUDENT CONDUCT CODE

Good conduct consists of the observations of a few necessary rules and in treating others as you would have them treat you. Our school rules are necessary to enable large numbers of students to live and work together harmoniously. Students are expected to be courteous to their fellow students, teachers, staff members, and substitutes. Cooperation is the most important ingredient in having classes and the school run smoothly. Rules pertaining to good conduct include a demonstration of:

Courtesy

Consideration of Others

Consistent Preparation for Class

Punctuality in Time of Arrival

Respect for School Property and Grounds

Good behavior when entering the school and transitioning in the halls.

Students are expected to follow and practice the Six Pillars of Character to assist in making good decisions and following the expectations of the school. The Six Pillars are:

Trustworthiness

Respect

Responsibility

Fairness
