

Rutgers Day 2016 will be held on April 30 from 10:00 AM--4 PM on the three main campuses of Rutgers University--New Brunswick/Piscataway, Camden, and Newark. Rutgers Day is a fun and informative day for all ages and the festival is FREE. Connect with your state university while enjoying hundreds of concerts, demonstrations, talks, athletics, contests, dance and arts events, and hands-on activities. Whether your interests are in the arts, business, sciences ,sports, medicine, food or you just want to finally get a chance to see your campus, Rutgers Day will be a great day for you and your family/friends. Speak with Rutgers faculty and students while exploring your State University. Enjoy many unique events celebrating the 250th Anniversary of Rutgers.
